

WOMEN'S HISTORY MONTH

Honoring and Celebrating Local Heroes in the
Arkansas Army and Air National Guard
March 2016

Despite various, though limited, roles in the armies of past societies, the role of women in the military, particularly in combat, is controversial and it is only recently that women have begun to be given a more prominent role in contemporary armed forces. More recently, from the beginning of the 1970s, most Western armies have begun to admit women to serve active duty in all of military branches.

Military Nurses

During the course of World War I, 21,498 U.S. Army nurses (military nurses were all women then) served in military hospitals in the United States and overseas. Eighteen African-American Army nurses served stateside caring for German prisoners of war (POWs) and African-American soldiers; after the Armistice, Nov. 11, 1918, they entered the Army Nurse Corps and cared for people.

ARKANSAS GUARD'S FIRST FEMALE GENERAL

Brig. Gen. Patricia M. Anslow is the first female general officer in the Arkansas National Guard.

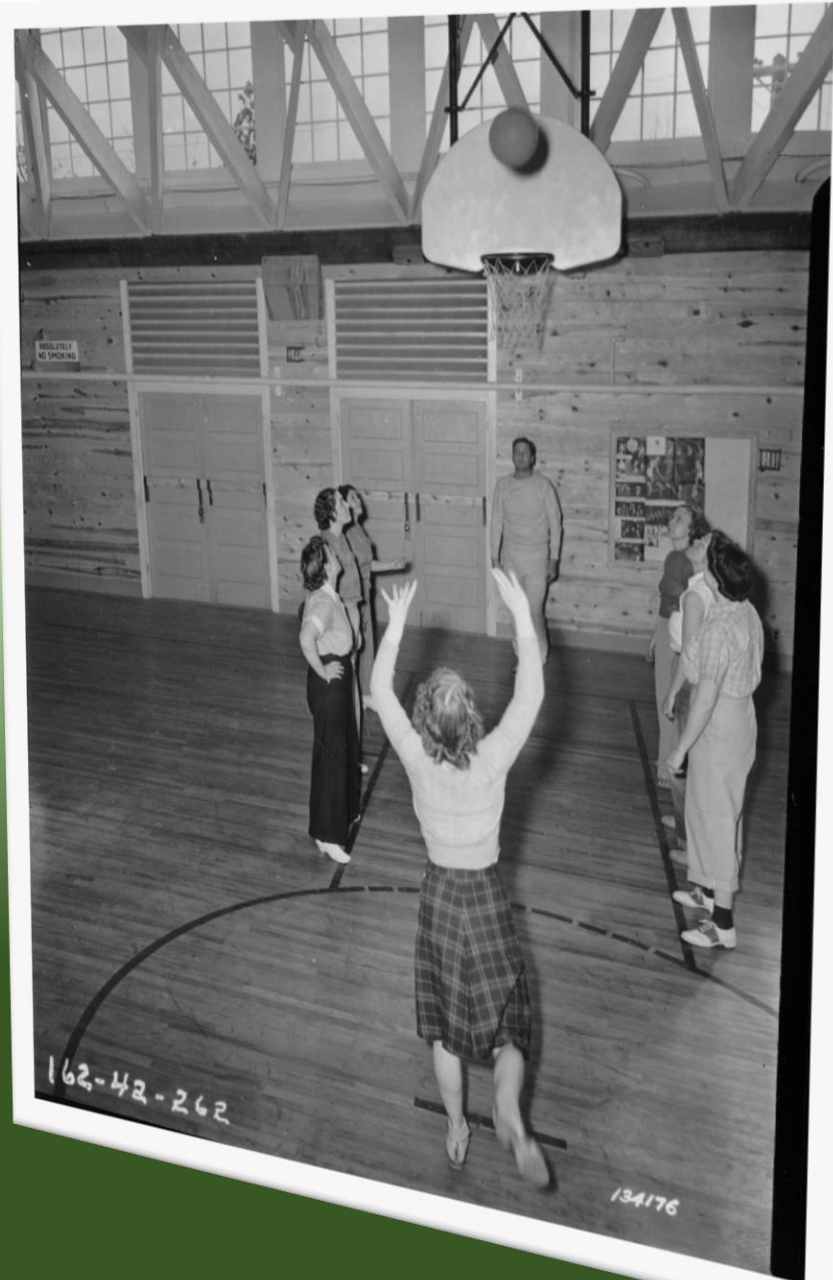

Arkansas Air National Guard's 188th Wing is based at Ebbing Air National Guard Base in Fort Smith, Arkansas.

Recreation Time

SC 134176

Photo taken during the nurses' gym class at the Field House, Camp Robinson, Arkansas. L. to R: Lt. B. Frydenlund, 2nd Lt. Ass't. Chief Nurse Harnett Campbell, 2nd Lt. M. Mathias, 2nd Lt. S. Schuler, 2nd Lt. E. Bigger, 2nd Lt. B. Height and 2nd Lt. P.M. Rivera. February 24, 1942.

Signal Corps Photo #162-42-262 by Spinelli,
162nd Signal Photographic Company.
Original negative received with letter of April 28,
1942. 1x5 orig. neg.

CW5 Pamela Huff

Pamela (Marshall) Huff began her military career in 1975 with the Arkansas Army National Guard after graduating high school. Pamela's motivation for joining the military was in knowing that she would be serving not only her country but the people. She became the first African-American female Chief Warrant Officer Five (CW5) in the Arkansas Army National Guard (AR ARNG). Chief Huff holds the status of a Human Resource Officer & Internal Auditor for the National Guard. She earned her BS degree at John Brown University and her Master of Arts in Human Resources Development from Webster.

Red Cross Assistant Recreational Director

SC 134184

Photo shows Kathleen Buck, Red Cross Assistant Recreational Director, taken on February 26, 1942 in the Red Cross Building at Camp Robinson, Arkansas.

Signal Corps Photo #162-42-288 by Mackay, 162nd Signal Photographic Company.

Original negative received with letter of April 28, 1942.
4x5 orig. neg.

Staff Sgt. Kristi Boatwright

Staff Sgt. Kristi Boatwright, who was selected as the March 2016 The Flying Razorback spotlight.

Station Hospital, Camp Robinson 1942

SC 138586

Heat and massage room of the physiotherapy department of the Station Hospital, Camp Robinson, Arkansas, 3/31/42.

Signal Corps Photo #162-42-T-857. (Hyflop)
Original negative received from 152nd Signal Photo Co. July 1944.
(also) 4 x 5 orig. neg.

Lt. Col Erica Ingram

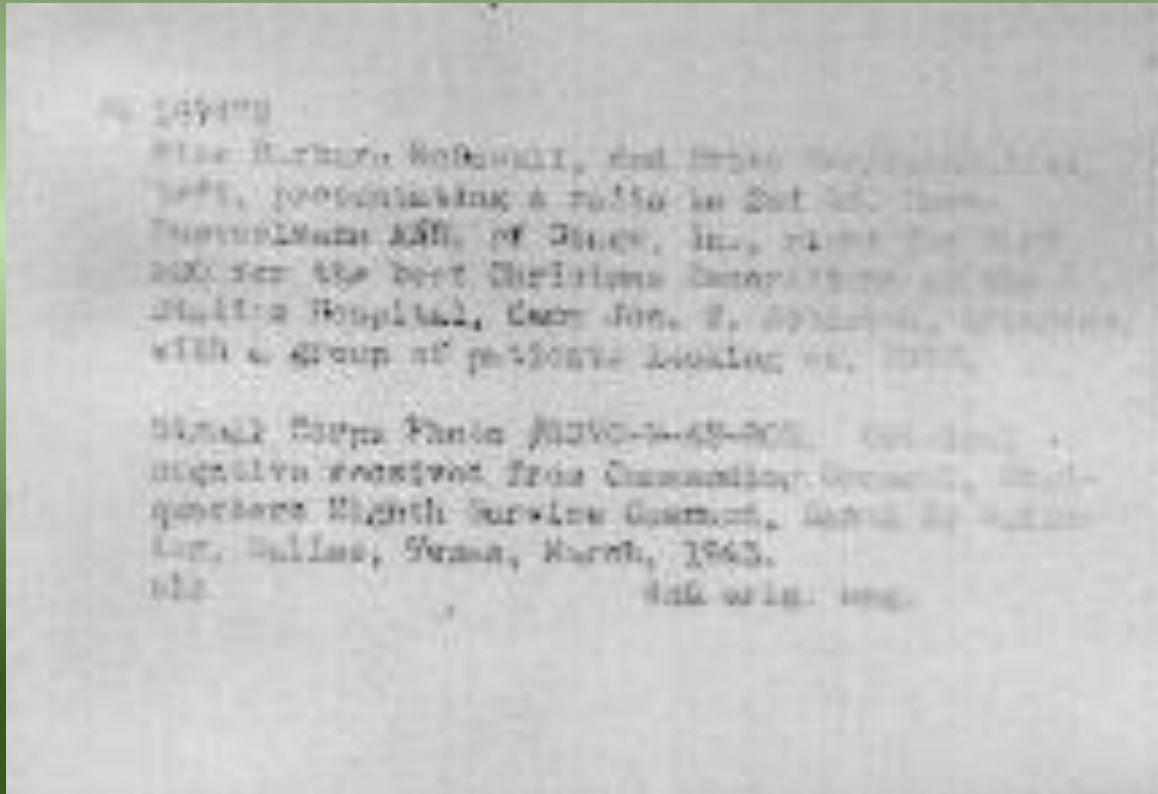

Lt. Col Erica Ingram, Commander, 871st Troop Command of the Arkansas National Guard.

The 871st is one of the largest units in Arkansas. She will succeed outgoing commander, Lt. Col. Dwight D. Ikenberry

July 10, 2014

Christmas at Camp Robinson 1943

Colonel Bobbi J. Doorenbos

Colonel Bobbi J. Doorenbos took command of the 188th Wing Jan. 11, 2015. Colonel Doorenbos now serves as both the wing commander and air commander for the nearly 1,000 members of the 188th Wing, of which more than 300 are full-time personnel. In this dual role as wing commander and air commander, Colonel Doorenbos oversees all of the 188th Wing's operations and support functions, as well as manages the full-time force of federal technicians, Active Guard and Reserve members and state employees.

CW4 Dorothy L. Sealy

CW4 Sealy served the AR ARNG from 28 June 1973 until 25 July 2001.

Her first unit was HHC 212th Signal BN in North Little Rock, AR.

ARMY NURSE CORPS OF YATES CENTER

SC 141160

Lt. Mary Croyle, Army Nurse Corps of Yates Center, Kansas, Station Hospital, Camp Robinson, Ark., putting operating room equipment into sterilizer where it stays under 20 pounds per square inch pressure at 250° Fahrenheit for one hour. 4/2/42.

Signal Corps Photo #102-42-9637. (Hulton)
Original negative received from 102nd Signal
Photo Co., Camp Robinson, Ark. August 1942.
(eis) 4 x 5 orig. neg.

LTC Peggy Frye

Peggy Frye is the first woman in the history of the 188th Wing to be promoted to the rank of lieutenant colonel. Frye was promoted on Dec. 14, 1989, and was a member of the 188th Medical Training Squadron, which is now the 188th Medical Group. (Courtesy photo)

Colonel Anita Deason

Retired Arkansas National Guard Col. Anita Deason has joined U.S. Sen. John Boozman's staff in Little Rock as an adviser on military and veterans' issues.

Deason served 33 years in the military rising to the rank of colonel during her final assignment as human resources officer for the Arkansas National Guard. She had previously served as a platoon leader, detachment commander, company executive officer and company commander.

Deason earned numerous awards and decorations, including the Legion of Merit, Meritorious Service Medal and the Arkansas Commendation Medal. "It is an honor to have the opportunity to serve those that have served and those continuing to serve our country. I am excited to be on Sen. Boozman's team," Deason said.

March 5, 2015

General View of Station Hospital Ward, 1942

SC 138552

General view of a Station Hospital Ward. The Gray Lady in the middle-ground is conducting a bingo game for the patients. 3/30/42.

Signal Corps Photo #162-42-7838. (Hilton)
Original negative received from 162nd Signal
Photo Co. July 1942.
(afs)

4 x 5 orig. neg.

ELISABETH MCGOWEN

Fayetteville, AR

Recreation Reading Room, Station Hospital, 1942

SG 134376

Red Cross Recreational Reading Room, Station Hospital, Camp Robinson, Arkansas. L to r:

Pfc. Melton L. Boone, Mrs. R. L. Stewart, visiting son, from Alexandria, Louisiana, Pvt. Louis Tunison (standing) 161st F.A., Pfc. L. G. Collins, 108th Medical Regiment, and Mrs. H.L. Dickinson from Little Rock, Arkansas. January 29, 1942.

Signal Corps Photo #162-42-111 by McGray, 162nd Signal Photographic Company.

Original negative received with letter of April 28, 1942. evs 4x5 orig. neg.

LT. (Nurse) Hilda Vettters

SC 133759

H.V. Kaltenborn, noted world news analyst, visits Camp Joseph T. Robinson, Arkansas. L to R: 2nd Lt. (Nurse) Hilda Vettters, H.V. Kaltenborn, and Lt. Col. Clyde M. Beck, Commander of the Camp Robinson Base Hospital. Kaltenborn is speaking to Pfc. Virgil Stanley of the 207th M.P. Co., Ft. McClellan, Alabama, who was injured in an auto accident during maneuvers. November 10, 1941.

Signal Corps Photo #162-209-41-202 by Pellican,
162nd Signal Photographic Company.
Original negative received April 1942.
evs lpx5 orig. neg.

Outstanding Senior Noncommissioned Officers

MG Mark Berry and MSgt Monica Murray

Retired State Command
Sgt. Maj. Deborah
Collins

Brigadier General Tamhra L. Hutchins-Frye

BG Hutchins-Frye entered the Air National Guard in 1984, as an airman first class, serving in the personnel customer service section.

- August 1989 became second lieutenant after completion of the Academy of Military Science as the Personnel Utilization Officer.
- 1992, she became first female full-time officer of the 188th Fighter Wing
- December 1994, became the first female commander of a unit in the 188th Fighter Wing
- May 2010, she began serving in her current position as the Director of Joint Staff.
- June 2016, became the first female Air Guard Brigadier General

ARKANSAS GUARD PROMOTES First Female Air Guard Brigadier General

CLICK IMAGE ABOVE TO PLAY
VIDEO BY SGT KATIE GRAY

Story by Sgt. Alejandro Smith-Antuna
NORTH LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (June 4, 2016) — Friends and family gathered with excitement and levity to witness a ceremony honoring Col. Tamhra Hutchins-Frye as she was promoted to the rank of brigadier general with the Joint Force Headquarters for the Arkansas Air National Guard on Robinson Maneuver Training Center.

Hutchins-Frye is the first woman to attain the rank of general in the Arkansas Air National Guard and will be serving as the Director of the Joint Staff. As the director, she is responsible for managing the National Guard functions of the joint staff and joint-military program operations throughout the state.

"I spent time growing up in the back of Arkansas, in the country, and that really set me up for success [in the military]," Hutchins Frye said. "The girls were just as tough as the guys and had to keep up."

Hutchins-Frye entered the Air National Guard in 1984 hoping to become a pilot, but was told she "couldn't because I was a woman and could not be in combat." She did not let that dissuade her. "I loved the people I had met so far," she says "and decided to go ahead and join anyways!"

Maj. Gen. Mark Berry, The State Adjutant General of the Arkansas National Guard said, "This is a very significant day in the Arkansas National Guard. We now have two female generals in the state," referring to Brig. Gen. Patricia Anslow, Arkansas Army National Guard general. "I have high expectations and confidence in Brig. Gen. Hutchins-Frye and [I believe] she will live up to the standards and performance expected of a general officer in the United States military today."

Maj. Phylinthia Givens

Arkansas Air National Guard
Maj. Phylinthia Givens will receive the prestigious
Technology All-Star Award
Nov. 2, 2007.

Sgt. Jennifer Champion

President Barack Obama visited Mayflower and Vilonia to tour the devastation. He also took time to meet with a select few first responders and Guard personnel who were quick to action to help their neighbors and friends on that fateful night April 27, 2014.

In this photo is our very own Sgt. Jennifer Champion, a combat medic, and single mother of four who lost everything in the storm. Despite her loss she immediately began moving through her neighborhood and rendering aid to her neighbors.

Lt. Bethany Jackson

Lt. Bethany Jackson of the Air National Guard piloted Blackhawk helicopters to evacuate wounded soldiers from combat zones in Iraq.

Women's Army Corps

WACs Arrive at their Barracks, 1943

Camp Robinson, Arkansas

Colonel (Ret) Karen D. Gattis

Colonel Karen D. Gattis assumed command of the National Guard Marksmanship Training Center from Colonel Steven Miles during an assumption of command ceremony on April 18, 2010.

Col. Gattis, who previously commanded the 77th Aviation Brigade at Camp Joseph T. Robinson, looked forward to her new assignment at the NGMTC.

"The National Guard Marksmanship Center has a long history of excellence and I will ensure the quality will remain and the marksmen who come to our Center will leave here as highly skilled lethal weapons," she said.

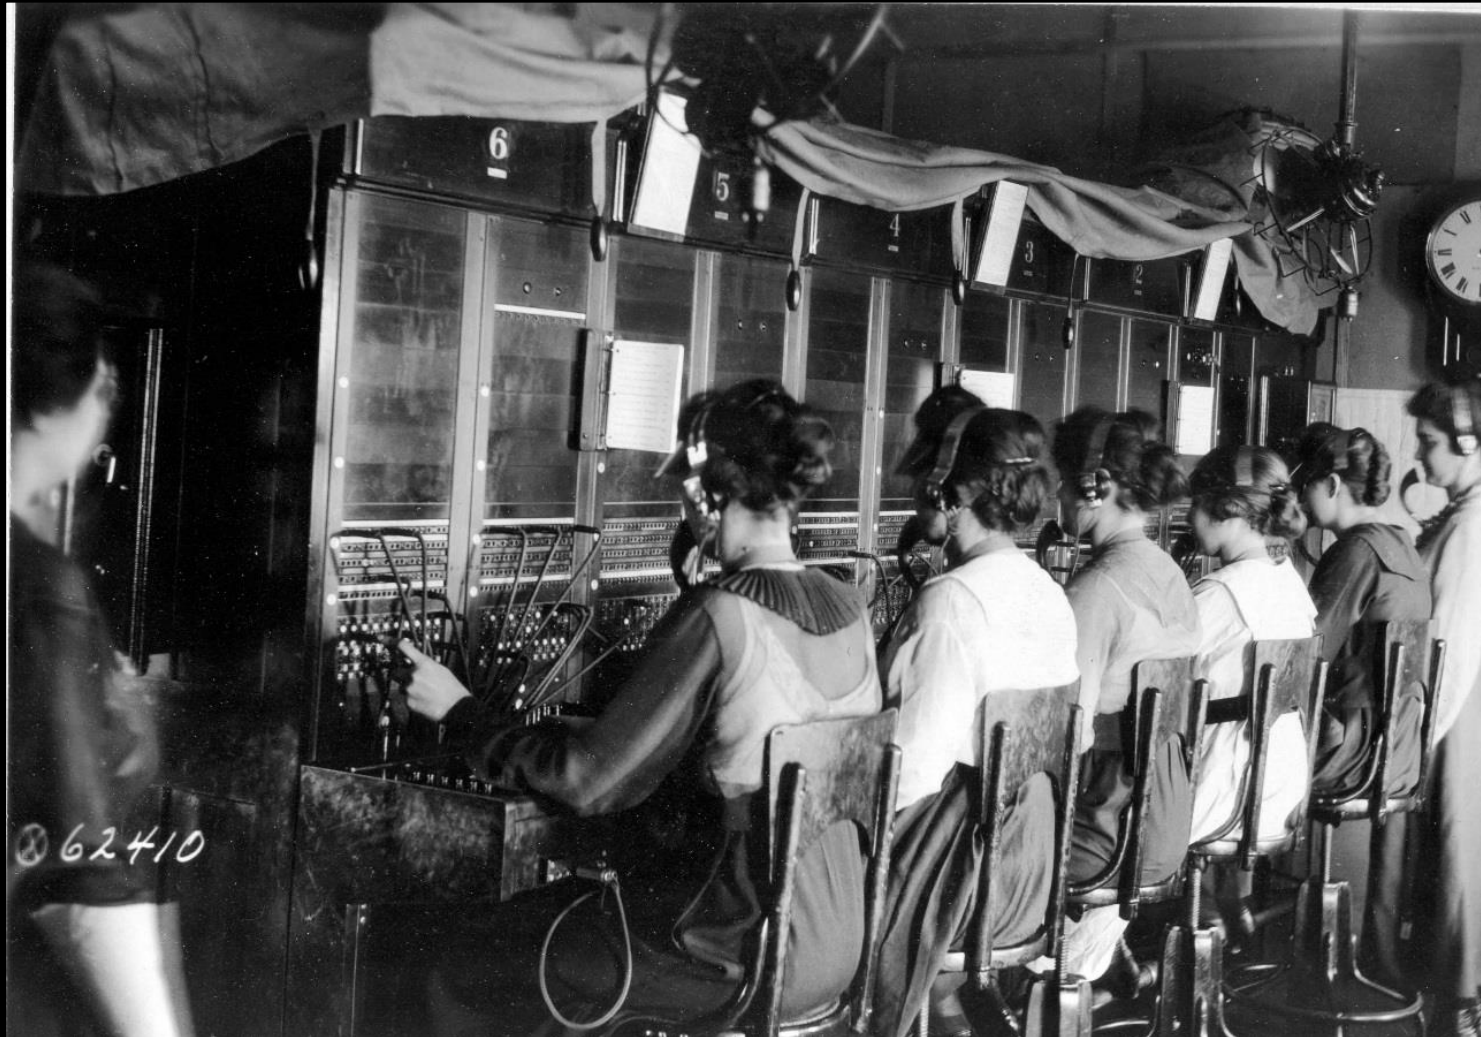

Colonel (Ret) Mary Francis “Frankie” Sears

Mary F. "Frankie" Sears, a nurse who served with distinction in Operation Desert Storm, mirrored the new image of the Department of Veterans Affairs. Sears agreed to get involved with the National Cemetery Service that served the 114 cemeteries in 38 states and Puerto Rico. Mrs. Sears, who held the rank of colonel in the National Guard, was a graduate of the Army War College and was co-chairman of the Arkansas Governor's Commission on Veterans Affairs.

Source: Thecabin.net - February 14, 2004

Camp Robinson Telephone Exchange - 1919

| | |
|--|--------------|
| NUMBER 62,410 | SYMBOL A |
| S. C. PHOTOGRAPHER | |
| REC'D 9/24/19 | TAKEN '19 |
| DESCRIPTION: CAMP PIKE, LITTLE ROCK, ARK. Operating room, main Camp telephone exchange. | |

CW4 Dorothy L. Sealy

Years of Service
28 Jun 73 to 25 Jul 01

Trailblazer for the women to come.

1st Battalion, 153d Infantry
"Always First"
39th Infantry Brigade (Separate)
Arkansas Army National Guard
Malvern, Arkansas

Colonel (Ret) Alicia “Cissy” Rucker

Colonel (Ret) Alicia “Cissy” Rucker, spent 33 years in the Arkansas National Guard, retiring with the rank of Colonel. Her assigned duties included Airfield Commander, Surface Maintenance Manager, Maintenance Manager and State Public Affairs Officer. She is a member of the Employer Support of the Guard and Reserve Committee, as well the Women's International Helicopter Pilots Association.

