IMPROVEMENTS AT CAMP SATISFACTORY

Lieutenant Colonel Lentz, C. M. T. C. Commander Here. Inspects Training Area.

Lieut. Col. Barnard Lentz, commander of the Third Infantry at Fort Snelling, Minn., who has been assigned to command the Citizens Military Training Camp at Camp McRae, July 2 to 30, expressed himself as well pleased with the new auditorium, swimming pool and other improvements at the camp, after inspecting the camp area yesterday.

Colonel Lentz was accompanied on the inspection trip by Maj. M. R. Baer, regular army officer in charge of the Organized Reserve in Arkansas; Lieut. Col. Charles S. Garrett, assistant adjutant general, and Lieut. Col. Edward Woodford, United States property and disbursing officer for the Arkansas National Guard.

Colonel Lentz will confer with Governor Parham and Mayor Knowlton today and will leave for Seventh Corps Area headquarters at Omaha, Neb., tonight.

Major Baer and about 15 men will go on duty at the camp June 1 to prepare for the encampment. About June 20 Colonel Lentz, 30 regular army officers and 100 enlisted men will arrive at the camp to begin work on the training program. Approximately 75 reserve officers will reach the camp June 28, and 800 boys and young men between 17 and 24 will reach the camp July 2.

Colonel Lentz said 2,000 applications have been received for the Arkansas encampment and that only 900 can be accepted.

Other Seventh Corps Area encampments will be held at Fort Crook, Neb.; Fort Des Moines, Ia.; Fort Leavenworth, Kan.; Fort Snelling, Minn.; Fort Monmouth, N. J.; Fort Lincoln, N. D.; June 18 to July 12, and at Jefferson Barracks, Mo., July 7 to August 4. More than 7,000 applications have been filed for all the camps, which is the largest number ever received this early in the year, it was said.

Cyrus Eaton Resigns From Commonwealth Securities.

Cleveland, May 15.—Cyrus R. Eaton, Cleveland financier, who recently resigned as chairman of Continental Shares, Inc., one of the country's largest investment companies, also has resigned the chairmanship of Commonwealth Securities, Inc., another company he founded.

This was announced today by Thomas H. White, president of Commonwealth, who said Eaton would remain on the board.

H. K. FORD TO HEAD GENERAL HOSPITAL

Appointed by Mayor Knowlton to Succeed Mrs. Florence Ellis.

Following a brief meeting of the Health Committee of the City Council yesterday afternoon, Mayor Knowlton announced the appointment of H. K. Ford, 916 South Street, as superintendent of General Hospital, succeeding Mrs. Florence Ellis, superintendent for the past two years. He will assume his duties this morning.

The Health Committee convened at 3 p. m. with Chairman Connor in charge, and with the mayor attending. Mayor Knowlton said the appointment received the unanimous approval of the committee, and that no other business was discussed.

"I have perfect confidence that General Hospital will be given a business administration," Mayor Knowlton said. "I have known Mr. Ford many years, and his ability as a successful business man has been demonstrated in his ventures for himself and in his association with other organizations. I feel a good part of our problem at the hospital will be solved through his work."

Mr. Ford has been a resident of Little Rock many years, coming here in May, 1900. During the World War, he served as financial secretary of the Little Rock Chamber of Commerce, and as a member of the Karmington Board Later, he was associated with Draughon's Business College, and afterward opened the Ford Business College, which he owned and operated for several years. More recently, he has been associated with the Acme Brick Company as field salesman. Mr. Ford said he appreciated the opportunity given him at the hospital, and he realized the importance of the public trust involved in his role. He will move into the institution soon, he said.

Appointments of J. L. Bennett as chief of police and the superintendent of General Hospital leave only one city position of major importance unchanged since Mayor Knowlton assumed office in April, that of city health officer. Several meetings of the Health Committee have been held, and the mayor has given much time to discussion of the problems confronting General Hospital and the Health Department. One of the major proposals before the Health Committee is that of a long extension of the lease to the University of Arkansas School of Medicine for the handling of charity cases and laboratory work at the hospital. Neither Mr. Ford nor Mayor Knowlton would comment regarding the question yesterday.

Mr. Ford said his time for the next few days would be occupied with familiarizing himself with the duties of his office. He accompanied Mayor

CHIEF MARTINEAU GRANTED PENSION

Declines Lieutenantcy When Mayor Replaces Him With J. L. Bennett.

CHANGE EFFECTIVE TODAY

Popular New Police Head Represents 224 Change Made in Department by Knowlton.

J. L. Bennett, 3515 High Street, former assistant chief of police, who was retired four years ago after 21 years of service, today will take command of the Little Rock Police Department. Mayor Knowlton announced yesterday. He succeeds Chief of Police W. K. Martineau who yesterday afternoon was granted a pension due to a physical disability.

Mayor Knowlton, in making the announcement, said he had the utmost confidence in the new chief, adding that during Mr. Bennett's 21 years' service as a peace officer in Little Rock he had gained a wide knowledge of police work.

Chief Martineau was offered a lieutenantcy, but declined, preferring to retire, although he only lacked a year of completing his 20 years as a member of the Police Department when he would have been entitled to a pension. A meeting of the Pension Board then was called and he was granted a pension.

Mr. Bennett, a native of Logan county, was reared there and in his youth, taught school in that county for several years before coming to Little Rock. He joined the Little Rock Police Department in 1908 and after serving in practically every capacity, retired while he was serving as assistant chief. For a period he was captain of detectives. He also acted as lieutenant, acting chief and night chief. Since his retirement in 1927 Mr. Bennett has been engaged in business with his son who operates the Vick & Bennett Detective Agency.

Praise for Mr. Martineau. Mr. Bennett had nothing but praise for the officer whom he replaces, assuring Chief Martineau that his only regret in returning to the department was the fact that this meant the retirement of Mr. Martineau. The two had been police duty together many years.

When retired four years ago Mr. Bennett had the unique record of having served as a peace officer for 21 years without having fired his service revolver. During the latter part of his career with the department he seldom carried a weapon, he said.

Chief Martineau has no plans for the future, but he probably will take a rest. Several weeks ago he intimated that if he should resign he would take a vacation first of all.

Chief Bennett said last night that he had no plans for operation of the department of except that he would try to give the public the best police protection possible.

"I have not the opportunity to discuss matters with Mayor Knowlton, and until I can talk with him I will have nothing to say except that I intend to keep the department working full till all the time," he said.

The appointment was another of the many changes made in the Police Department since Mr. Knowlton became mayor. He discharged 18 officers, three others resigned, and Chief Martineau's resignation yesterday was the 22d.

Harvey H. Bundy Appointed Assistant State Secretary.

Chicago Tribune-Arkansas Gazette Special: Washington, May 15.—The "old Harvard clique," which has dominated almost every move in the State Department, received another of a recent series of jolts today when President Hoover announced the appointment of Harvey H. Bundy, a Yale graduate, as an assistant secretary of state to fill the post vacated by the recent resignation of William R. Castle Jr. to the position of under secretary.

The appointment of Mr. Bundy brings the total of Yale men in the State Department to five. He is a member of the Harvard Four years ago during the Kellogg regime, fully 50 per cent of all the high ranking career

M'GILL REVEALED HEAVILY IN DEBT

Rice Growers and Business Men of Stuttgart Section May Suffer Losses.

RUSSIA URGED TO RESPECT RELIGION

Baptist Convention Adopts Resolution Deploing Persecution of Christians.

Special to the Gazette. Stuttgart, May 15.—Believing that A. U. McGill, 40 well known rice miller, is alive, investigators today were checking up reports that there are many disbelievers in accounts of the McGill Bros. mill, and that the wealthy milling executive had absconded with a large sum of money obtained through manipulating drafts on bills of lading. Only a few of McGill's close friends and business associates deny the theory that the wealthy miller was drowned when his automobile plunged over a bluff into White River near Harris ferry about midnight Tuesday. Indications are that McGill drove his car into the river as a ruse to delay search while he made his getaway, or that he was kidnapped when left alone with his stalled car while Ours Crockett, buyer for McGill's mill, went to Harris ferry for help, officers said tonight.

Reverend Clarendon said that a man answering McGill's description left there for Forrest City in a taxicab between 1 and 2 Wednesday morning. Sheriff John O. Roberts of Monroe county said that the man changed cars at Forrest City and went to Memphis, from where he planned to take a plane for New Orleans.

Officers here who last night said the identity of occupants of a car that followed McGill's car, and that Clarendon had been established, denied the statement today and said the occupants of a car bearing a California license, which had been seen parked on the streets of Clarendon almost all day Tuesday, were not McGill and Clarendon. First believed that McGill left Clarendon in the California car Crockett said the car that followed them from Clarendon did not cross White river and evidently turned around while he walked to Harris ferry to obtain help.

Hardship for Many Farmers. With the filing of petitions for receivership against McGill Bros. millers, in Little Rock Wednesday, came the disclosure that McGill was heavily involved, and that because of his operations rice growers and business men of this section would be heavily losers. McGill had made a practice of purchasing rice on the 3-day plan, issuing drafts that would be made good by money obtained through the sale of clean rice. Due to a dull rice market and curbed buying credit during the past year, many of the drafts issued to farmers became overdue.

Closing of the mill will work a severe hardship on many farmers who had planned to use the money due them from their last year's crop to finance the coming crop. It was said on good authority here today that assets would be sufficient to pay farmers a portion of their claims, but the exact amount is a matter of speculation.

All local firms and individuals and a few non-residents and included in the list of creditors when the mill went into receivership Wednesday. Obligations of these, it was estimated today, would amount to approximately $300,000. One of the assets of McGill's mill, it was said, would increase that total to well over $500,000.

Among the largest non-resident creditors were two banks, one in St. Louis and one in Little Rock, which owned the mill large sums on drafts attached to bills of lading on rice shipments. Most of McGill's credit was extended by outside banks and it was said here today that the mill owed but little, if any, money to local banks, which forewarned the impending crash and restricted credit some time ago.

Railroad auditors were here today checking reports that some of the drafts held by Little Rock and St. Louis banks were attached to bills of lading on which no shipments of rice had been made.

All money borrowed by McGill Bros. it was said, was upon stocks and bonds, and the mill and equipment are free of encumbrance. Banks which protested the payments of drafts are said to have been paid off by promissory notes.

Had Done Large Business. McGill had operated a mill here about 15 years, doing business on a

PROHIBITION MEMORIAL

Three Proposals Adopted for Educating the Young on the Evils of Intemperance.

Birmingham, Ala., May 15.—In view of human rights through religious persecution was charged to the Soviet Russian government in a resolution adopted today by the Southern Baptist Convention, which called upon that government to grant its citizens "indefeasible rights of conscience in matters of religion."

The convention referred the resolution to a committee after it was read from the floor by Dr. L. E. Barton, secretary of the Alabama Baptist Convention, and later unanimously passed after the committee reported it favorably without modification.

After approving the resolution the committee was directed to forward the resolution to the Soviet authorities on behalf of the 400,000 constituents of the convention. With it went the "good friendship of the convention toward all Russian people."

"It is said by the Soviet government that there is no God," the resolution said, "our reply is that such a declaration does violence to the self-consciousness of the human mind and to the human spirit, which abundantly testifies to the human belief that there is a Supreme Being."

All just human law and government must be based on this elemental truth, human governments have no rights whatever in the matter of conscience. No earthly government has any right to require its citizens or subjects to be religious or to exempt them from religious convictions and activities.

"We hold that the Russian government in its persecution of religion as expressed in the closing of churches, discriminating against ministers of religion, limiting of free speech and freedom of assembly is not only violating the inherent rights of humanity, but is hindering its own national development and endangering its own safety and solidarity as a nation."

"We appeal to the Soviet government in the name of reason, justice, conscience, humanity and God Almighty, that she fully recognize and cheerfully accord to all her citizens and subjects the indefeasible rights of conscience in all matters of religion."

Prohibition Memorial. The first appearance of the prohibition question came before the convention today when the Executive Committee of the Georgia delegation memorialized the convention to sponsor a program "for the re-education of young people as to the evil effects of intemperance and the beneficial effects of temperance."

The convention voted unanimously to take this action as summarized in the memorial. Three proposals were included as follows:

1.—That the convention request the Sunday school board to introduce such a campaign through its widespread agencies.

2.—The giving of fundamental facts as to the injury that comes from the use of strong drink and also a history of its deadly course that all Baptist papers join a determined and persistent campaign of education and enlightenment.

3.—That the convention suggest to each state convention and district association that time be given in meetings to properly emphasize the subject.

Message from England. Disposing of this resolution the convention turned to the question of international peace when Dr. C. R. Brooke of London, England, general secretary of the Baptist World Alliance, brought messages from Arthur Henderson, British foreign minister, and A. J. Alexander, first lord of the Admiralty.

You have president who is a leader after peace," Dr. Brooke told the convention, "and we have in England a government of genuine peace."

SCHEDULES FILED

and His Liabilities as
$4,915,768

When A. B. Banks, banker, insurance executive and financier, filed a voluntary petition in bankruptcy in United States District Court here December 22, his assets had a paper value of $8,127,277.89, but included no cash on hand except $972.55, represented by a check, schedules which he filed with Referee in Bankruptcy Joe H. Schneider yesterday disclosed.

Debts totaling $4,915,768.98 are listed, being summarized as follows: Taxes due United States, $9,607.14; other debts preferred by law, $3,760; secured claims, $376,170; unsecured claims, $4,500; accommodation paper, $4,521,741.84.

In the summary of assets, in addition to the cash, were: Real estate, $27,898; bills, promissory notes and securities, $421,203.33; debts due on open accounts, $166,255.59; stocks negotiable, bonds, etc. (par value), $1,346,151.30; policies of insurance (coverage amounts), $1,633,000; unliquidated claims, $4,521,741.84; property in reversion, etc., $7,058.28 paid attorneys' fee in bankruptcy case.

The property claimed for exemption includes $400 to be deducted from the $972.55 check, the Banks homestead at Fordyce with a valuation of $2,500, and a Packard automobile valued at $100, which a notation in the schedules says is "practically worthless," having been driven 56,000 miles.

Creditors to Meet.

Referee Schneider announced that creditors of Mr. Banks will meet Wednesday, January 21, in his office. Those of A. B. Banks & Co. will meet January 19 and those of Vann M. Howell Company, holding concern for Mr. Banks, will confer January 20. After the three bankruptcy petitions were filed December 22 the referee appointed J. K. Riffler receiver. A trustee to take charge of the assets will be chosen by the creditors.

Excluding from the assets the unliquidated claims, which equal the amount of the accommodation paper listed with the liabilities, Mr. Banks' schedules show property with a paper value of $3,605,536.05. Of this, $1,633,000 represents the coverage value of insurance policies issued to Mr. Banks. With the amount of these policies deducted, a balance of $1,972,536.05 in assets remains, much of which is stock in closed banks, the Home Fire and Accident insurance companies, which are in receivership, and in other concerns the stock of which is said to be worthless.

Insurance reported by Mr. Banks included: Central Life Assurance Society of Des Moines, $130,000; Pacific Mutual Life Insurance Company of Los Angeles, $100,000; Aetna Life Insurance Company, $200,000; Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York, $55,000; Prudential Insurance Company of America, $185,000; John Hancock Mutual Life Insurance Company, $150,000; New York Life Insurance Company, $50,000; Home Life Insurance Company, $555,000; Union Central Life Insurance Company of Cincinnati, $150,000; Knights of Pythias, $5,000; A.
