

Joint Force Headquarters - Arkansas
April 24, 2007

Dear Governor Beebe,

Please join us on Saturday, May 5, 2007, as the Arkansas National Guard conducts our annual Arkansas National Guard Memorial Service to its members who have been killed in action.

The memorial holds the names of all those members of the Arkansas Guard and its militia predecessor who have been killed in action. This year, we will recognize the three Arkansas members of the 77th Aviation Brigade who were killed in Operation Iraqi Freedom IV.

The memorial ceremony will take place at Camp Robinson's Armstrong Chapel at 3:00 p.m. on May 5, 2007. Please RSVP by calling 501-212-5001. I ask that you respond by Friday, May 4, 2007.

We will have special parking reserved for you near the memorial. Please bring this letter with you and show it to the guards at the front gate and at the checkpoints to gain access to the reserved parking area.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "William D. Wofford". The signature is stylized and cursive.

William D. Wofford
Major General
The Adjutant General

Honorable Mike Beebe
Governor of Arkansas
State Capitol Building
Little Rock, AR 72201

Same letter mailed to:

Senator Lincoln

Senator Pryor

Congressman Berry

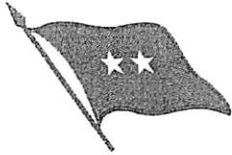

Congressman Boozman

Congressman Snyder

Congressman Ross

Mayor Hays (NLR)

Mayor Stodola (LR)

Joint Force Headquarters - Arkansas
April 24, 2007

Dear Mrs. Warren,

Please join us on Saturday, May 5, 2007, as the Arkansas National Guard conducts our annual Arkansas National Guard Memorial Service to its members who have been killed in action.

The memorial holds the names of all those members of the Arkansas Guard and its militia predecessor who have been killed in action. This year, we will recognize the three Arkansas members of the 77th Aviation Brigade who were killed in Operation Iraqi Freedom IV.

The memorial ceremony will take place at Camp Robinson's Armstrong Chapel at 3:00 p.m. on May 5, 2007. Please RSVP by calling 501-212-5001. I ask that you respond by Friday, May 4, 2007.

We will have special parking reserved for you near the memorial. Please bring this letter with you and show it to the guards at the front gate and at the checkpoints to gain access to the reserved parking area.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "William D. Wofford".

William D. Wofford
Major General
The Adjutant General

Mrs. Doris A. Warren
105 Ray Street
North Little Rock, AR 72118

Joint Force Headquarters - Arkansas
April 24, 2007

Dear Ms. Warren,

Please join us on Saturday, May 5, 2007, as the Arkansas National Guard conducts our annual Arkansas National Guard Memorial Service to its members who have been killed in action.

The memorial holds the names of all those members of the Arkansas Guard and its militia predecessor who have been killed in action. This year, we will recognize the three Arkansas members of the 77th Aviation Brigade who were killed in Operation Iraqi Freedom IV.

The memorial ceremony will take place at Camp Robinson's Armstrong Chapel at 3:00 p.m. on May 5, 2007. Please RSVP by calling 501-212-5001. I ask that you respond by Friday, May 4, 2007.

We will have special parking reserved for you near the memorial. Please bring this letter with you and show it to the guards at the front gate and at the checkpoints to gain access to the reserved parking area.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "W. D. Wofford".

William D. Wofford
Major General
The Adjutant General

Ms. Billie E. Warren
5505 MacArthur Drive
North Little Rock, AR 72118

Joint Force Headquarters - Arkansas
April 24, 2007

Dear Mrs. Brown,

Please join us on Saturday, May 5, 2007, as the Arkansas National Guard conducts our annual Arkansas National Guard Memorial Service to its members who have been killed in action.

The memorial holds the names of all those members of the Arkansas Guard and its militia predecessor who have been killed in action. This year, we will recognize the three Arkansas members of the 77th Aviation Brigade who were killed in Operation Iraqi Freedom IV.

The memorial ceremony will take place at Camp Robinson's Armstrong Chapel at 3:00 p.m. on May 5, 2007. Please RSVP by calling 501-212-5001. I ask that you respond by Friday, May 4, 2007.

We will have special parking reserved for you near the memorial. Please bring this letter with you and show it to the guards at the front gate and at the checkpoints to gain access to the reserved parking area.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'William D. Wofford', written in a cursive style.

William D. Wofford
Major General
The Adjutant General

Mrs. Donna Kay Brown
13017 Lemon Crest Lane
Little Rock, AR 72210

Joint Force Headquarters - Arkansas
April 24, 2007

Dear Mr. Brown,

Please join us on Saturday, May 5, 2007, as the Arkansas National Guard conducts our annual Arkansas National Guard Memorial Service to its members who have been killed in action.

The memorial holds the names of all those members of the Arkansas Guard and its militia predecessor who have been killed in action. This year, we will recognize the three Arkansas members of the 77th Aviation Brigade who were killed in Operation Iraqi Freedom IV.

The memorial ceremony will take place at Camp Robinson's Armstrong Chapel at 3:00 p.m. on May 5, 2007. Please RSVP by calling 501-212-5001. I ask that you respond by Friday, May 4, 2007.

We will have special parking reserved for you near the memorial. Please bring this letter with you and show it to the guards at the front gate and at the checkpoints to gain access to the reserved parking area.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "W. D. Wofford", written in a cursive style.

William D. Wofford
Major General
The Adjutant General

Mr. Carl L. Brown
1732 likaswitch
Sanguin, TX 78155

Joint Force Headquarters - Arkansas
April 24, 2007

Dear Mrs. Taylor,

Please join us on Saturday, May 5, 2007, as the Arkansas National Guard conducts our annual Arkansas National Guard Memorial Service to its members who have been killed in action.

The memorial holds the names of all those members of the Arkansas Guard and its militia predecessor who have been killed in action. This year, we will recognize the three Arkansas members of the 77th Aviation Brigade who were killed in Operation Iraqi Freedom IV.

The memorial ceremony will take place at Camp Robinson's Armstrong Chapel at 3:00 p.m. on May 5, 2007. Please RSVP by calling 501-212-5001. I ask that you respond by Friday, May 4, 2007.

We will have special parking reserved for you near the memorial. Please bring this letter with you and show it to the guards at the front gate and at the checkpoints to gain access to the reserved parking area.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'William D. Wofford', written in a cursive style.

William D. Wofford
Major General
The Adjutant General

Mrs. Wendy JoAnne Taylor
8105 Coleridge
North Little Rock, AR 72116

Joint Force Headquarters - Arkansas
April 24, 2007

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Taylor,

Please join us on Saturday, May 5, 2007, as the Arkansas National Guard conducts our annual Arkansas National Guard Memorial Service to its members who have been killed in action.

The memorial holds the names of all those members of the Arkansas Guard and its militia predecessor who have been killed in action. This year, we will recognize the three Arkansas members of the 77th Aviation Brigade who were killed in Operation Iraqi Freedom IV.

The memorial ceremony will take place at Camp Robinson's Armstrong Chapel at 3:00 p.m. on May 5, 2007. Please RSVP by calling 501-212-5001. I ask that you respond by Friday, May 4, 2007.

We will have special parking reserved for you near the memorial. Please bring this letter with you and show it to the guards at the front gate and at the checkpoints to gain access to the reserved parking area.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "William D. Wofford".

William D. Wofford
Major General
The Adjutant General

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Taylor
112 Meigs Drive
Shalimar, FL 32579

Joint Force Headquarters - Arkansas
April 24, 2007

Dear Sergeant and Mrs. Miranda,

Please join us on Saturday, May 5, 2007, as the Arkansas National Guard conducts our annual Arkansas National Guard Memorial Service to its members who have been killed in action.

The memorial holds the names of all those members of the Arkansas Guard and its militia predecessor who have been killed in action. This year, we will recognize the three Arkansas members of the 77th Aviation Brigade who were killed in Operation Iraqi Freedom IV.

The memorial ceremony will take place at Camp Robinson's Armstrong Chapel at 3:00 p.m. on May 5, 2007. Please RSVP by calling 501-212-5001. I ask that you respond by Friday, May 4, 2007.

We will have special parking reserved for you near the memorial. Please bring this letter with you and show it to the guards at the front gate and at the checkpoints to gain access to the reserved parking area.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "W. D. Wofford", written over a faint, illegible background.

William D. Wofford
Major General
The Adjutant General

SFC (Ret.) and Mrs. Carlos Miranda
805 Polk County Rd. 6
Wickes, AR 71973

Joint Force Headquarters - Arkansas
April 24, 2007

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Winters,

Please join us on Saturday, May 5, 2007, as the Arkansas National Guard conducts our annual Arkansas National Guard Memorial Service to its members who have been killed in action.

The memorial holds the names of all those members of the Arkansas Guard and its militia predecessor who have been killed in action. This year, we will recognize the three Arkansas members of the 77th Aviation Brigade who were killed in Operation Iraqi Freedom IV.

The memorial ceremony will take place at Camp Robinson's Armstrong Chapel at 3:00 p.m. on May 5, 2007. Please RSVP by calling 501-212-5001. I ask that you respond by Friday, May 4, 2007.

We will have special parking reserved for you near the memorial. Please bring this letter with you and show it to the guards at the front gate and at the checkpoints to gain access to the reserved parking area.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "W. D. Wofford", written over a faint, illegible background.

William D. Wofford
Major General
The Adjutant General

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Winters
10227 Perry Road
Bauxite, AR 72011

Joint Force Headquarters - Arkansas
April 24, 2007

Dear Mrs. Rymer,

Please join us on Saturday, May 5, 2007, as the Arkansas National Guard conducts our annual Arkansas National Guard Memorial Service to its members who have been killed in action.

The memorial holds the names of all those members of the Arkansas Guard and its militia predecessor who have been killed in action. This year, we will recognize the three Arkansas members of the 77th Aviation Brigade who were killed in Operation Iraqi Freedom IV.

The memorial ceremony will take place at Camp Robinson's Armstrong Chapel at 3:00 p.m. on May 5, 2007. Please RSVP by calling 501-212-5001. I ask that you respond by Friday, May 4, 2007.

We will have special parking reserved for you near the memorial. Please bring this letter with you and show it to the guards at the front gate and at the checkpoints to gain access to the reserved parking area.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "William D. Wofford", written in a cursive style.

William D. Wofford
Major General
The Adjutant General

Mrs. Lyle W. Rymer
1201 N. 12th
Fort Smith, AR 72901

Joint Force Headquarters - Arkansas
April 24, 2007

Dear Mrs. Orton,

Please join us on Saturday, May 5, 2007, as the Arkansas National Guard conducts our annual Arkansas National Guard Memorial Service to its members who have been killed in action.

The memorial holds the names of all those members of the Arkansas Guard and its militia predecessor who have been killed in action. This year, we will recognize the three Arkansas members of the 77th Aviation Brigade who were killed in Operation Iraqi Freedom IV.

The memorial ceremony will take place at Camp Robinson's Armstrong Chapel at 3:00 p.m. on May 5, 2007. Please RSVP by calling 501-212-5001. I ask that you respond by Friday, May 4, 2007.

We will have special parking reserved for you near the memorial. Please bring this letter with you and show it to the guards at the front gate and at the checkpoints to gain access to the reserved parking area.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "William D. Wofford".

William D. Wofford
Major General
The Adjutant General

Mrs. Billy J. Orton
218 E. Main Street
Carlisle, AR 72024

Joint Force Headquarters - Arkansas
April 24, 2007

Dear Ms. Miranda,

Please join us on Saturday, May 5, 2007, as the Arkansas National Guard conducts our annual Arkansas National Guard Memorial Service to its members who have been killed in action.

The memorial holds the names of all those members of the Arkansas Guard and its militia predecessor who have been killed in action. This year, we will recognize the three Arkansas members of the 77th Aviation Brigade who were killed in Operation Iraqi Freedom IV.

The memorial ceremony will take place at Camp Robinson's Armstrong Chapel at 3:00 p.m. on May 5, 2007. Please RSVP by calling 501-212-5001. I ask that you respond by Friday, May 4, 2007.

We will have special parking reserved for you near the memorial. Please bring this letter with you and show it to the guards at the front gate and at the checkpoints to gain access to the reserved parking area.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'W. D. Wofford', written in a cursive style.

William D. Wofford
Major General
The Adjutant General

Ms. Bobby Miranda
805 Polk County Rd. 6
Wickes, AR 71973

Joint Force Headquarters - Arkansas
April 24, 2007

Dear Mrs. Melton,

Please join us on Saturday, May 5, 2007, as the Arkansas National Guard conducts our annual Arkansas National Guard Memorial Service to its members who have been killed in action.

The memorial holds the names of all those members of the Arkansas Guard and its militia predecessor who have been killed in action. This year, we will recognize the three Arkansas members of the 77th Aviation Brigade who were killed in Operation Iraqi Freedom IV.

The memorial ceremony will take place at Camp Robinson's Armstrong Chapel at 3:00 p.m. on May 5, 2007. Please RSVP by calling 501-212-5001. I ask that you respond by Friday, May 4, 2007.

We will have special parking reserved for you near the memorial. Please bring this letter with you and show it to the guards at the front gate and at the checkpoints to gain access to the reserved parking area.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'William D. Wofford', is written over a faint, illegible typed name.

William D. Wofford
Major General
The Adjutant General

Mrs. Kenneth A. Melton
30 Hix Lane
Batesville, AR 72501

Joint Force Headquarters - Arkansas
April 24, 2007

Dear Mr. McHalfey,

Please join us on Saturday, May 5, 2007, as the Arkansas National Guard conducts our annual Arkansas National Guard Memorial Service to its members who have been killed in action.

The memorial holds the names of all those members of the Arkansas Guard and its militia predecessor who have been killed in action. This year, we will recognize the three Arkansas members of the 77th Aviation Brigade who were killed in Operation Iraqi Freedom IV.

The memorial ceremony will take place at Camp Robinson's Armstrong Chapel at 3:00 p.m. on May 5, 2007. Please RSVP by calling 501-212-5001. I ask that you respond by Friday, May 4, 2007.

We will have special parking reserved for you near the memorial. Please bring this letter with you and show it to the guards at the front gate and at the checkpoints to gain access to the reserved parking area.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "William D. Wofford".

William D. Wofford
Major General
The Adjutant General

Mr. Rickey W. McHalfey
2223 N. Glenstone
Springfield, MO 65803

Joint Force Headquarters - Arkansas
April 24, 2007

Dear Mrs. Marcum,

Please join us on Saturday, May 5, 2007, as the Arkansas National Guard conducts our annual Arkansas National Guard Memorial Service to its members who have been killed in action.

The memorial holds the names of all those members of the Arkansas Guard and its militia predecessor who have been killed in action. This year, we will recognize the three Arkansas members of the 77th Aviation Brigade who were killed in Operation Iraqi Freedom IV.

The memorial ceremony will take place at Camp Robinson's Armstrong Chapel at 3:00 p.m. on May 5, 2007. Please RSVP by calling 501-212-5001. I ask that you respond by Friday, May 4, 2007.

We will have special parking reserved for you near the memorial. Please bring this letter with you and show it to the guards at the front gate and at the checkpoints to gain access to the reserved parking area.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'William D. Wofford', written in a cursive style.

William D. Wofford
Major General
The Adjutant General

Mrs. Joshua S. Marcum
40 Cedar Glade Road
Evening Shade, AR 72532

Joint Force Headquarters - Arkansas
April 24, 2007

Dear Mrs. Labadie,

Please join us on Saturday, May 5, 2007, as the Arkansas National Guard conducts our annual Arkansas National Guard Memorial Service to its members who have been killed in action.

The memorial holds the names of all those members of the Arkansas Guard and its militia predecessor who have been killed in action. This year, we will recognize the three Arkansas members of the 77th Aviation Brigade who were killed in Operation Iraqi Freedom IV.

The memorial ceremony will take place at Camp Robinson's Armstrong Chapel at 3:00 p.m. on May 5, 2007. Please RSVP by calling 501-212-5001. I ask that you respond by Friday, May 4, 2007.

We will have special parking reserved for you near the memorial. Please bring this letter with you and show it to the guards at the front gate and at the checkpoints to gain access to the reserved parking area.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "William D. Wofford".

William D. Wofford
Major General
The Adjutant General

Mrs. William W. Labadie
1901 Breckenridge
Del City, OK 73115

Joint Force Headquarters - Arkansas
April 24, 2007

Dear Mrs. Kordsmeier,

Please join us on Saturday, May 5, 2007, as the Arkansas National Guard conducts our annual Arkansas National Guard Memorial Service to its members who have been killed in action.

The memorial holds the names of all those members of the Arkansas Guard and its militia predecessor who have been killed in action. This year, we will recognize the three Arkansas members of the 77th Aviation Brigade who were killed in Operation Iraqi Freedom IV.

The memorial ceremony will take place at Camp Robinson's Armstrong Chapel at 3:00 p.m. on May 5, 2007. Please RSVP by calling 501-212-5001. I ask that you respond by Friday, May 4, 2007.

We will have special parking reserved for you near the memorial. Please bring this letter with you and show it to the guards at the front gate and at the checkpoints to gain access to the reserved parking area.

Sincerely,

William D. Wofford
Major General
The Adjutant General

Mrs. Patrick W. Kordsmeier
5710 Southwind Drive
North Little Rock, AR 72118

Joint Force Headquarters - Arkansas
April 24, 2007

Dear Dr. Stuart,

Please join us on Saturday, May 5, 2007, as the Arkansas National Guard conducts our annual Arkansas National Guard Memorial Service to its members who have been killed in action.

The memorial holds the names of all those members of the Arkansas Guard and its militia predecessor who have been killed in action. This year, we will recognize the three Arkansas members of the 77th Aviation Brigade who were killed in Operation Iraqi Freedom IV.

The memorial ceremony will take place at Camp Robinson's Armstrong Chapel at 3:00 p.m. on May 5, 2007. Please RSVP by calling 501-212-5001. I ask that you respond by Friday, May 4, 2007.

We will have special parking reserved for you near the memorial. Please bring this letter with you and show it to the guards at the front gate and at the checkpoints to gain access to the reserved parking area.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "William D. Wofford".

William D. Wofford
Major General
The Adjutant General

Dr. Cheryl Stuart
30 Layette, #256
Lewisville, AR 71845

Joint Force Headquarters - Arkansas
April 24, 2007

Dear Mrs. Collier,

Please join us on Saturday, May 5, 2007, as the Arkansas National Guard conducts our annual Arkansas National Guard Memorial Service to its members who have been killed in action.

The memorial holds the names of all those members of the Arkansas Guard and its militia predecessor who have been killed in action. This year, we will recognize the three Arkansas members of the 77th Aviation Brigade who were killed in Operation Iraqi Freedom IV.

The memorial ceremony will take place at Camp Robinson's Armstrong Chapel at 3:00 p.m. on May 5, 2007. Please RSVP by calling 501-212-5001. I ask that you respond by Friday, May 4, 2007.

We will have special parking reserved for you near the memorial. Please bring this letter with you and show it to the guards at the front gate and at the checkpoints to gain access to the reserved parking area.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "William D. Wofford", is written over a faint, illegible typed name.

William D. Wofford
Major General
The Adjutant General

Mrs. Russell L. Collier
719 N Chestnut
Harrison, AR 72601

Joint Force Headquarters - Arkansas
April 24, 2007

Dear Mrs. Buie,

Please join us on Saturday, May 5, 2007, as the Arkansas National Guard conducts our annual Arkansas National Guard Memorial Service to its members who have been killed in action.

The memorial holds the names of all those members of the Arkansas Guard and its militia predecessor who have been killed in action. This year, we will recognize the three Arkansas members of the 77th Aviation Brigade who were killed in Operation Iraqi Freedom IV.

The memorial ceremony will take place at Camp Robinson's Armstrong Chapel at 3:00 p.m. on May 5, 2007. Please RSVP by calling 501-212-5001. I ask that you respond by Friday, May 4, 2007.

We will have special parking reserved for you near the memorial. Please bring this letter with you and show it to the guards at the front gate and at the checkpoints to gain access to the reserved parking area.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "William D. Wofford".

William D. Wofford
Major General
The Adjutant General

Mrs. Jimmy D. Buie
6192 Camp Tahkodah Road
Floral, AR 72534

Joint Force Headquarters - Arkansas
April 24, 2007

Dear Mrs. Brandon,

Please join us on Saturday, May 5, 2007, as the Arkansas National Guard conducts our annual Arkansas National Guard Memorial Service to its members who have been killed in action.

The memorial holds the names of all those members of the Arkansas Guard and its militia predecessor who have been killed in action. This year, we will recognize the three Arkansas members of the 77th Aviation Brigade who were killed in Operation Iraqi Freedom IV.

The memorial ceremony will take place at Camp Robinson's Armstrong Chapel at 3:00 p.m. on May 5, 2007. Please RSVP by calling 501-212-5001. I ask that you respond by Friday, May 4, 2007.

We will have special parking reserved for you near the memorial. Please bring this letter with you and show it to the guards at the front gate and at the checkpoints to gain access to the reserved parking area.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "William D. Wofford".

William D. Wofford
Major General
The Adjutant General

Mrs. Stacey C. Brandon
607 S. Livermore Street
Hazen, AR 72064

Joint Force Headquarters - Arkansas
April 24, 2007

Dear Mrs. Box,

Please join us on Saturday, May 5, 2007, as the Arkansas National Guard conducts our annual Arkansas National Guard Memorial Service to its members who have been killed in action.

The memorial holds the names of all those members of the Arkansas Guard and its militia predecessor who have been killed in action. This year, we will recognize the three Arkansas members of the 77th Aviation Brigade who were killed in Operation Iraqi Freedom IV.

The memorial ceremony will take place at Camp Robinson's Armstrong Chapel at 3:00 p.m. on May 5, 2007. Please RSVP by calling 501-212-5001. I ask that you respond by Friday, May 4, 2007.

We will have special parking reserved for you near the memorial. Please bring this letter with you and show it to the guards at the front gate and at the checkpoints to gain access to the reserved parking area.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "William D. Wofford". The signature is stylized and cursive.

William D. Wofford
Major General
The Adjutant General

Mrs. Hesley Box, Jr.
201 Toland Drive, 5
Nashville, AR 71852

Joint Force Headquarters - Arkansas
April 24, 2007

Dear Mrs. Baker,

Please join us on Saturday, May 5, 2007, as the Arkansas National Guard conducts our annual Arkansas National Guard Memorial Service to its members who have been killed in action.

The memorial holds the names of all those members of the Arkansas Guard and its militia predecessor who have been killed in action. This year, we will recognize the three Arkansas members of the 77th Aviation Brigade who were killed in Operation Iraqi Freedom IV.

The memorial ceremony will take place at Camp Robinson's Armstrong Chapel at 3:00 p.m. on May 5, 2007. Please RSVP by calling 501-212-5001. I ask that you respond by Friday, May 4, 2007.

We will have special parking reserved for you near the memorial. Please bring this letter with you and show it to the guards at the front gate and at the checkpoints to gain access to the reserved parking area.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'William D. Wofford', is written over a faint, larger version of the same signature.

William D. Wofford
Major General
The Adjutant General

Mrs. Ronald W. Baker
11 Barnwell Drive
Cabot, AR 72023